(a) Cape of Good Hope
(b) Cape Horn
(c) South East Cape (d) Cape Agulhas

18. Africa is home to five of the world's top oil- producing countries. Which of the following is Africa's largest oil producer?
(a) Nigeria
(b) Angola
(c) Algeria
(d) Libya

19. Despite of apprehensions of many, Uranium is a key resource in ensuring India's energy security in coming few decades. Which country has largest proven Uranium reserves in Africa?
(a) Niger
(b) Nigeria
(c) Namibia
(d) Algeria

20. India is highly import dependent for Phosphate, the primary ore of phosphorous which is used in fertilizers for agriculture, and as a component in pharma industry. Which of the following African country has highest proven Phosphate reserves?
(a) Algeria
(b) Morocco
(c) South Africa
(d) Egypt

21. With fast changing dynamics of mobility, Electrical Vehicles (EVs) to become 'new horses' for humanity for next few decades. Cobalt is a key element of EVs' energy house, the battery. Which of the following African country is world leader in production of this rare metal?
(a) Madagascar
(b) Ghana
(c) Central African Republic
(d) Democratic Republic of the Congo

22. Copper belt of Africa spreads over border of which of the following African countries?
(a) Zambia and DR of Congo
(b) DR of Congo and Central African Republic