1. The highest point in Africa, Mount Kilimanjaro is in Kenya.
2. The lowest point in Africa, Lake Asal is in Ethiopia.

Identify the correct statements. Answer using the codes given below:

(a) 1 only
(b) 2 only
(c) Both 1 and 2
(d) Neither 1 nor 2

69. Consider the following:
    1. It shares boundary of one of the Great African Lakes
    2. Its' capital hosts UN Africa Headquarters.
    3. Mombasa is the second largest city of this country.

    Identify the African country based on the information given:

    (a) Tanzania
    (b) Uganda
    (c) Mozambique
    (d) Kenya

70. Consider the following statements regarding Grate Lakes of Africa:
    1. Equator passes through One of the Great lakes.
    2. Victoria Waterfall feeds Victoria Lake. Identify the correct statements. Answer using the codes given below:

    (a) 1 only
    (b) 2 only
    (c) Both 1 and 2
    (d) Neither 1 nor 2

71. Which of the following is not an African country?
    (a) Sao Tome and Principe
    (b) Cape Verde
    (c) Eswatini
    (d) None of the above

72. Consider the following:
    1. It is the only contiguous transcontinental country of Africa.
    2. Ninety eight percent of this country's people live in 3% of its territory.

    Identify the African country based on the information given:

    (a) Morocco