South Africa and Lesotho.

- Atlas Mountains: Mountain range in Maghreb spreading over Morroco,Algeria, Tunisia; Located along Atlantic and Mediterranean Coast.
- Namib Desert: Spreads over Namibia, South Africa and Angloa along Atlantic Coast.

13.

- A doubly land locked country is which can not reached from sea/ocean without crossing at least two sovereign countries. Central African Republic is not a doubly land locked country in Africa. Only Liechtenstein and Uzbekistan are doubly landlocked.
- River Congo, though drains large parts of Central African Republic through its tributaries, do not flow through CAR.

14.

- The Congo's drainage basin covers 4,014,500 square kilometres, an area larger than India.
- The river and its tributaries flow through the Congo Rainforest, the second largest rain forest area in the world, second only to