Difficulty Level: Tough

51. Tugela waterfall is formed by Orange River in Drakensberg range of South Africa. South Africa is second largest economy in African Continent after Nigeria 52.

- Sub-tropical HP zone → Subsiding air → Warm and dry → Less cloud formation and rain
- West coast and Continental effect → Offshore areas of trade wind and falling under the rain shadow area → scanty rain fall
- Cold Canary Current and Cold Benguela Current → stable air over coasts → less cloud formation and rain fall

53. The equator passes through 13 countries of Africa: Ecuador, Colombia, Brazil, Sao Tome and Principe, Gabon, Republic of the Congo, Democratic Republic of the Congo, Uganda, Kenya, Somalia, Maldives, Indonesia and Kiribati.

Explanation (50)

54. Three nations qualify as completely surrounded by another country's land and/or internal waters: