

11. Germany borders Denmark to the North, Poland and the Czech Republic to the East, Austria and Switzerland to the South, France to the southwest, and Luxembourg, Belgium, and the Netherlands to the west.

12. Most of Western Europe has an Oceanic climate, in the Koppen climate classification. Oceanic climates normally feature cool summers, cool winters, and frequent overcast skies in fall, winter, and early spring.
13.