(b) Caribbean Sea
(c) Baltic Sea
(d) Philippine Sea

60. “These rocks are characterised by marks left behind by water currents and waves. These rocks have fossils of plants and animals. These rocks are generally porous and allow water to percolate through them.”
Which of the following rock type can be best described using the aforementioned paragraph?
(a) Metamorphic Rocks
(b) Sedimentary Rocks
(c) Igneous Rocks
(d) None of the above

61. “It played a key role in forming new seas and oceans. It also creates new continents. It is also responsible for creating longest mountain range on Earth. This is responsible for the Great African Rift”.
This process is:
(a) Divergent Plate Boundary interaction
(b) Conservative Plate Boundary interaction
(c) Hotspot volcanism interaction
(d) Destructive Plate Boundary interaction

DIFFICULTY LEVEL: TOUGH

62. Which of the following acts as direct sources of information about Earth’s interior?
1. Volcanic Eruptions
2. Study of Seismic Waves
3. Spatial variations in Earth’s Gravity
4. Meteors
5. Deep Earth Mining

Choose the correct combination from below:
(a) 1,2 and 3 only
(b) 3,4 and 5 only
(c) 1 and 5 only