

Difficulty Level: Tough

51. The Pyrenees mountain range separates the Iberian Peninsula from the rest of Europe, stretching more than 430km between Spain and France and rising higher than 3,400m in elevation. Andorra is a tiny sovereign state in the heart of the chain.

52.

- The path which crosses least number of coun tries is ‘Moscow (Russia) → Belarus or Ukraine → Poland → Germany → France → Madrid (Spain)’
- Six countries in total including the source and destination.