

53. In the Northern Hemisphere, the Prime Meridian passes through the UK, France and Spain in Europe and Algeria, Mali, Burkina Faso, Togo and Ghana in Africa. The only landmass crossed by the Meridian in the Southern Hemisphere is Antarctica.
54. Three nations qualify as completely surrounded, i. e., enclaved by another country's land and/or internal waters:
    - The Republic of San Marino, enclaved within Italy
    - Vatican City, enclaved within the city of Rome, Italy
    - The Kingdom of Lesotho, enclaved within South Africa
    - Sofia is capital of Bulgaria. It shares border with Black Sea.

