Difficulty Level: Easy

1. The Tropic of Capricorn passes through the middle of the Australian continent.
2. Sydney is the state capital of New South Wales and the most populous city in Australia and Oceania. Located on Australia's east coast, the metropolis surrounds the world's largest natural harbour and sprawls about 70 km (43.5 mi) on its periphery towards the Blue Mountains to the west, Hawkesbury to the north and Macarthur to the south. Sydney is made up of 658 suburbs, 40 local government areas and 15 contiguous regions. Residents of the city are known as "Sydneysiders". As on June 2016, Sydney's estimated population was 5,029,768.
3. Australia was discovered for the first time in 1770, by James Cooke. He landed near the Sydney harbour.
4. There are three main time zones in Australia. It is equal to Greenwich Meantime plus 10 hours (GMT +10).
5. Kookaburra and Lyre Bird are unique creatures found in Australia. The former can laugh and later is a great mimi. Kookaburra is also called 'Laughing Jacks'.
6. Mt. Kosciusko is the highest peak in Australia. Mt. Townsend ranks as second.
7. Earth's oldest known piece of continental crust dates to the era of the moon's formation. Australia holds the oldest continental crust on Earth, researchers have confirmed, hills some 4.4 billion years old.
8. The River Murray is Australia's longest river. It is 2508 km long, spanning New South Wales, Victoria and South Australia.
9. Uluru, also known as Ayers Rock, is a large sandstone formation situated in central Australia approximately 335 km from Alice Springs.
10. Australia is situated in the middle of the tectonic plate, and therefore currently has no active volcanism.
11. Australia's national gemstone is the opal, a stone famous across the world for its brilliant colours. In Indigenous stories, a rainbow created the colours of the opal when it touched the earth. Opal,