1. The population density of India in the year 2011 was 482 persons per sq km.
2. Densities vary from 1,102 persons per sq km in Bihar to only 17 persons per sq km in Arunachal Pradesh.

Answer with codes:

(a) Only 1
(b) Only 2
(c) Both are wrong
(d) Both are correct

36. Consider the following statements regarding population:
    1. Population is a dynamic phenomenon. The numbers, distribution and composition of the population are constantly changing.
    2. This is the influence of the interaction of the three processes, namely—births, deaths and migrations.

    Choose the correct answer with codes below:

    (a) Only 1
    (b) Only 2
    (c) Both are correct
    (d) Both are wrong

37. Consider the following statements regarding Literacy Rates:
    1. Literacy is a very important quality of a population. Obviously, only an informed and educated citizen can make intelligent choices and undertake research and development projects.
    2. According to the Census 2011, a person aged 7 years and above, who can read and write with understanding in any language, is treated as literate.

    Choose the correct answer:

    (a) Only 1
    (b) Only 2
    (c) Both are wrong
    (d) Both are correct

38. Which of the following statements are correct?
    1. The percentage of population that is economically active is an important index of development.
    2. The distribution of the population according to different types of occupation is referred to as the occupational structure.