(b) Only 2
(c) Both are wrong
(d) Both are correct

12. Which of the following statement/s are wrong?
    1. The division of population into rural and urban is based on the literacy. This division is necessary because rural and urban life styles differ from each other in terms of their livelihood and social conditions.
    2. The age-sex-occupational structure, density of population and level of development vary between rural and urban areas.

    Choose the correct answer:
    (a) Only 1
    (b) Only 2
    (c) Both are wrong
    (d) Both are correct
13. Choose the correct statement or statements:
    1. Proportion of literate population of a country in an indicator of its socio-economic development as it reveals the standard of living, social status of females, availability of educational facilities and policies of government.
    2. Level of economic development is both a cause and consequence of literacy.
    3. In India, literacy rate denotes the percentage of population above 7 years of age, who is able to read, write and have the ability to do arithmetic calculations with understanding.

    Answer with the following codes:
    (a) Only 1
    (b) Only 2
    (c) Only 3
    (d) All correct
14. Consider the following statements:
    1. Both growth and development refer to changes over a period of time.
    2. Developement means that the change may be either positive (showing an increase) or negative (indicating a decrease).

    Choose the correct code from given below:
    (a) Only 1 correct