(b) 8000 BC
(c) 9000 BC
(d) 10000 BC

22. In 2003 the production of agricultural products was approximately worth ' 38 billion, hence, making India the _____ agricultural exporter.
(a) Fifth
(b) Sixth
(c) Seventh
(d) Last

23. Norman Borlaug is one of the leaders of this revolution, Hence he was " _____ ".
(a) Father of Silver Revolution
(b) Father of Red Revolution
(c) Father of Industrial Revolution
(d) Father of Green Revolution

24. Which forests grow in regions that receive an excess of 200 cm of rainfall?
(a) Tropical Evergreen Rainforests
(b) Deciduous Forest
(c) Desert Vegetation
(d) Mountain Forests

25. Our national animal the tiger is one such rare animal found in India. In fact, _____ can be found nowhere else on earth.
(a) the Gujarat tiger
(b) the Bengal tiger
(c) the Royal tiger
(d) the Rajasthan tiger

26. Consider the following statements regarding agriculture land:
1. Agriculture is a purely land based activity unlike secondary and tertiary activities.
2. In rural areas, aside from its value as a productive factor, land ownership has a social value and serves as a security for credit, natural hazards or life contingencies, and also adds to the social status.

Identify the correct statement:
(a) Only 1 correct