1. Industrial systems are made up of input, processes, and output. The input of raw materials, labour, land, power, and other infrastructure.
2. Industrial clusters occur when many industries are located close to each other and share the benefits of their closeness.

Answer the following with suitable codes:

(a) Both are correct
(b) Both are wrong
(c) 1 correct
(d) 2 wrong

16. Consider the following statements:
    1. Industries were classified according to raw material, size, and ownership.
    2. Iron and steel industries have their firm hold in countries like Germany, USA, China, Japan, and Russia.

    Answer the statement with the codes:

    (a) Only 1 correct
    (b) Only 2 correct
    (c) Both are correct
    (d) Both are wrong
17. Choose the following statements:
    1. Textile is a fabric that is woven from fibres. It takes raw material like cotton or wool and the process called spinning turns it into yarn that is later used to create the fabric.
    2. After that, textile industry expanded in Mumbai because of its warm, moist climate, facility of port for importing machinery and exporting the output and above all the availability of cheap labour.

    Answer the statements by the codes:

    (a) Only 1 correct
    (b) Both are correct
    (c) Only 2 correct
    (d) Both are wrong
18. Identify the following statements given below:
    1. Indian Industrial sector, hence, consists of manufacturing, mining, electricity, and construction.