The process of urbanisation has been characterised by increase in the number of large cities, although India may be said to be in the midst of transition from a predominantly rural to a quasi-urban society. Ministry of Housing and Urban Affairs (MoHUA) addresses various issues relevant to urban sector through appropriate policy guidelines, subordinate legislation and sectoral programmes.

Statement II: CORRECT—The Real Estate (Regulation and Development) Act, 2016 (RERA): One of the important concerns in the real estate sector is the legal battle being fought by home buyers against the builders for delaying the housing projects. The RERA is one of the significant reforms implemented in the real estate sector.

The core objective of this transformative legislation is to ensure regulation and promote real estate sector in an efficient and transparent manner and to protect the interest of home buyers. Rules under RERA has been notified by 30 States/UTs and 28 States/UTs have set up the Regulatory Authorities.

38. Statement I: CORRECT—Smart Cities Mission (SCM) was launched in June 2015 for a five year period with the objective of promoting cities that provide core infrastructure and give a decent quality life to its citizens. The strategic components of Smart Cities initiative are area-based development involving city improvement (retrofitting), city renewal (redevelopment) and city extension (Greenfield development) and a Pan-city development in which Smart Solutions are applied covering larger parts of the city.

Statement II: CORRECT—The 100 cities under the Mission have proposed to execute 5,151 projects worth ' 2,05,018 crore in five years from their respective dates of selection. Financial innovation is in-built in the design of the programme. The distribution of funding from Central and State Government is ' 93,552 crore (45%) and funds from PPP is ' 41,022 crore (21%).

39. Statement I: CORRECT—Private investment in infrastructure has come mainly in the form of PPPs. More than a third of the infrastructure investment in India in the past decade has come from the private sector. PPPs help in addressing the infrastructure