mechanisms for inter-ministerial coordination, introducing innovative project financing for leveraging both private and public funding, streamlining land acquisition processes, Central Road Fund (CRF) which is a major source of budgetary support for the Highway sector was replaced by Central Road and Infrastructure Fund (CRIF).

4. Wholesale trading constitutes bulk business through numerous intermediary merchants and supply houses and not through retail stores. Some large stores including chain stores are able to buy directly from the manufacturers. However, most retail stores procure supplies from an intermediary source. Wholesalers often extend credit to retail stores to such an extent that the retailer operates very largely on the wholesaler's capital.
5. Most people from colder regions expect to have warm, sunny weather for beach holidays. This is one of the main reasons for the importance of tourism in Southern Europe and the Mediterranean lands. The Mediterranean climate offers almost consistently higher temperatures, than in other parts of Europe, long hours of sunshine and low rainfall throughout the peak holiday season. People taking winter holidays have specific climatic requirements, either higher temperatures than their own homelands, or snow cover suitable for skiing.
6. The warmer places around the Mediterranean Coast and the West Coast of India are some of the popular tourist destinations in the world. Others include winter sports regions, found mainly in mountainous areas, and various scenic landscapes and national parks, which are scattered. Historic towns also attract tourists, because of their monuments, heritage sites and cultural activities.
7. The Quaternary Sector along with the Tertiary Sector has replaced most of the primary and secondary employment as the basis for Economic growth. Over half of all workers in developed economies are in the 'Knowledge Sector' and there has been a very high growth in demand for and consumption of information based services from mutual fund managers to tax consultants, software developers and statisticians.
