18. Statement I: CORRECT—Foreign exchange services are provided by many banks and specialist foreign exchange brokers around the world. foreign exchange services include:
    - Currency exchange - where clients can purchase and sell foreign currency banknotes.
    - Wire transfer - where clients can send funds to international banks abroad.
    - Remittance - where clients that are migrant workers send money back to their home country.

    London handled 36.7% of global currency transactions in 2009 - an average daily turnover of $1.85 trillion - with more US dollars traded in London than New York, and more Euros traded than in every other city in Europe combined.

    Statement II: CORRECT—Investment management - the term usually given to describe companies which run collective investment funds. Also refers to services provided by others, generally registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission as Registered Investment Advisors. Investment banking financial services focus on creating capital through client investments.
    - Hedge fund management - Hedge funds often employ the services of “prime brokerage” divisions at major investment banks to execute their trades.
    - Custody services - the safe-keeping and processing of the world’s securities trades and servicing the associated portfolios. Assets under custody in the world are approximately $100 trillion.

    New York City is the largest centre of investment services, followed by London.
19. Statement I: CORRECT—Insurance brokerage- Insurance brokers shop for insurance (generally corporate property and casualty insurance) on behalf of customers. Recently a number of websites have been created to give consumers basic price comparisons for services such as insurance, causing controversy within the industry.
    - Insurance underwriting - Personal lines insurance underwriters actually underwrite insurance for individuals, a service still