(a) Condensation
(b) Evaporation
(c) Sublimation
(d) Transpiration

17. Single-cell storms in Kerala are called as
(a) Blossom Showers
(b) Mango Showers
(c) Loo
(d) None of the above

18. The world's most electric place, the most lightning activity on Earth is seen on the shore of Lake Maracaibo is in
(a) USA
(b) UK
(c) Venezuela
(d) Canada

19. Tropical cyclones in western Australia are called as
(a) Hurricanes
(b) Cyclones
(c) Typhoons
(d) None of the above

20. An abnormal rise of sea level as the cyclone crosses the coast is called as
(a) Upwelling
(b) Tsunami
(c) Storm surge
(d) None of the above

21. In certain instances, two cyclones move toward each other and revolve around one another, with the smaller and less intense one moving more quickly. This phenomenon is called the
(a) Austrowhara effect
(b) American cyclonic syndrome
(c) Fujiwara effect
(d) Indian oceanic syndrome

22. The occasional development of warm ocean surface waters along the coast of Ecuador and Peru.
(a) La Nina
(b) Southern Oscillation