(a) Kerala has the highest literacy rate in India.
(b) Lakshdweep has the second highest literacy rate in the country.
(c) Bihar has recorded the lowest female literacy rate.
(d) Jammu and Kashmir has the literacy rate below the national level.

76. Which one of the following statements is not correct?
(a) Buddhism was founded in reaction to aspects of Hinduism.
(b) A major attraction of the teachings of Gautam Buddha was the rejection of the millions of Hindu gods.
(c) Buddha opposed the greater social mobility.
(d) Buddha questioned the rigid caste system.

77. Consider the following statements:
1. A sanctuary may be declared either by the state government or the central government.
2. Human interaction is allowed in the buffer zone of a sanctuary
3. Hunting of birds is allowed in a sanctuary with the permission in limited quantity.

Which of the above statement/statements is/are correct?

Codes:

(a) Only 1
(b) 2 and 3
(c) 1 and 3
(d) 1, 2 and 3

78. Consider the following statements and select the correct answer using the code given below:
1. The Niti Aayog (Planning Commission) of India makes an assessment of the material, capital and human resources of the country.
2. It formulates a plan for the most effective and balanced utilisation of the resources of the country.
3. It determines the priorities and proposes the allocation of resources for the due completion of priorities.
4. It determines the conditions for the successful execution of the plan.

Codes:

(a) 1, 2 and 3 are correct