and mild to cool in wet winters. The cause of this climate is directly linked to large bodies of water such as Mediterranean Sea and ocean currents. Almost no rainfall during the summer. Most of the rainfalls during the cooler winter.

14. Deflection of wind towards left in southern hemisphere and right in northern hemisphere is mainly due to rotation of Earth and Ferrel'slaw talks about law of diversion, i.e., left andright in South and north hemisphere respectively.
15. Most of nickel reserves of India are found in cuttack, keonjar and mayurbhanj districts of odisha (92%). About 175 million tonnes of nickel is estimated in odisha.

    Copper is mostly found in Bihar-jharkhand (44%). Tungsten is produced only in Degana mine in Rajasthan.
16. Govind Sagar dam is on sutlej near Punjab. Kolleru lake is located between Krishna and godavari river valleys and serves as natural flood balancing reservoir for both the rivers. River Budaneru drains into kolleru lake. Ukai reservoir is on tapi river. Wular lake is on river Jhelum.