38. Chos-dar, Upasaka, Biography of Dharmasvamin: A Tibetan Monk Pilgrim (translated by George Roerich), 1959. Travelling around Magadh, Dharmasvamin observed that ‘if a person of low caste looked at a person of high caste eating, then the food had to be thrown away . . . If a person of low caste approached the place where one was taking one’s food, that person had to say, “Duram gaccha”, i.e. “go away”.’ Source archived at https://ia801605.us.archive.org/32/items/in.ernet.dli.2015.505613/2015.505613.Biography-Of.pdf.
