"We are assessing the carrying capacity of our hills to stop any further construction where it has already reached its limit"

"The number of tourists is rising, be it for Char Dham or the Kanwar Yatra. The road network is being expanded to reduce the travel time"

"Our law against copying has enabled youths to clear more than one recruitment exam as merit is now the sole criterion to qualify"

PUSHKAR SINGH DHAMI, Chief Minister, Uttarakhand

CENTRE OF ATTENTION
Dhami (centre) with India Today Group Editorial Director Raj Chengappa (left) and India Today Hindi editor Saurabh Dwivedi

VISION FOR UTTARAKHAND

"To stop migration from the hills, we need to create opportunities. The first [sector] is tourism. Then, there is food processing. The subsidy for food processing units has been increased by 10 times. [We want to] tap the service sector, like setting up IT hubs in good locations"

"During the UPA's 10-year rule, the average rate of growth was 8.5 per cent. Now, it is 6.5 per cent.... The BJP is in power [in Uttarakhand] because of polarisation...plus the help of the Aam Aadmi Party"

HARISH RAWAT
Former CM, Uttarakhand, and former Union minister

"The devastation that we see today has been a way of nature warning us every 10 to 15 years...but this year it is a call to take corrective action right away and prepare a disaster mitigation plan for the future"

TRIVENDRA SINGH RAWAT
Former chief minister, Uttarakhand

"We have to preserve the ecology. At the same time, people staying in the hills need basic amenities. We are very clear about taking a balanced approach"

SUKHBIR SINGH SANDHU
Chief Secretary, Uttarakhand