Chhattisgarh

Leading the Way in Providing Restitution to Chitfund Investors for Lost Money

> I had promised you that the fraudulent pyramid schemes that have swindled your hard-earned money will not be spared. Legal actions will be taken against them, and the investors' funds will be returned. We have devised a plan to recover the investors' money from these pyramid schemes and set a timeframe for its implementation. Officials are diligently working on this and continuous actions are being taken against fake companies to return the investors' funds.
>
> Bhupesh Baghel
> Chief Minister, Chhattisgarh

I HAD PROMISED THAT I WON'T SPARE THE FRAUDSTERS.

In chit fund companies, individuals are becoming victims of deception as they invest their hard-earned money. However, Chhattisgarh has not only taken stringent action against such fraudulent activities but has also assumed the responsibility of returning the investors' hard-earned funds. Upholding his commitment, Chief Minister Bhupesh Baghel of Chhattisgarh is actively working to return the invested amounts to aggrieved chit fund investors. In a recent development, Chief Minister Bhupesh Baghel successfully returned a total sum of ₹4,13,88,996 to 35,378 affected investors across 7 districts of the state."

The Chief Minister returned the amount duped by chit fund companies to 35,378 investors in the Raipur, Bilaspur, Rajnandgaon, Dhamtari, Mahendragarh, Korea, and Mohla-Manpur-Ambagarh Chowki district. In this, a sum of 1 crore 44 lakh 37 thousand rupees has been returned to 13,676 investors in the Raipur district, and an amount of 84 lakh 55 thousand rupees has been returned to 16,615 investors in the Bilaspur district. Similarly, 1 crore 10 lakh rupees have been returned to 4,835 investors in the Rajnandgaon district, and 12 lakh 55 thousand rupees have been returned to 43 investors in the Dhamtari district. In the Manendragarh-Chirimiri-Bharatpur district, 44 lakh 41 thousand 895 rupees have been transferred to 110 investors, and in the Korea district, 17 lakh 18 thousand 960 rupees have been transferred to 94 investors, while 54,100 rupees have been transferred to 5 investors in the Mohla-Manpur-Ambagarh Chowki district. Addressing the beneficiaries online, Chief Minister Baghel said that Chhattisgarh is the first state in the country where action against chit fund companies has resulted in the return of money to affected investors.

MORE THAN 81 THOUSAND VICTIMS OF CHIT FUND SCAMS HAVE RECEIVED JUSTICE.

As per the directions of Chief Minister Baghel, a total of 81,204 affected investors in the state have been refunded a sum of Rs 37,92,99,656. A total of 462 cases have been filed against 208 chit fund companies, and the arrest of over 700 directors/ officials associated with these cases has also been made.

NOW OTHER STATES ARE ALSO ASKING, HOW COULD THIS BE POSSIBLE?

The Chief Minister said that looking at the actions taken by us, now other states are also asking us how this could be possible. The Chief Minister said that all this is possible due to the faith of the people of the state. In the program, Home Minister Tamradhwaj Sahu, who joined online, said in his address that this is the result of Chief Minister Bhupesh Baghel's forward-thinking that today they are returning money to investors, a thought he had abandoned. The Home Minister specially thanked the Chief Minister for bringing justice to the affected investors.

THE FAMILY HAD NOTHING LEFT, TODAY 4 LAKH RUPEES HAVE BEEN CREDITED TO THEIR ACCOUNT.

Chief Minister Mr. Bhupesh Baghel spoke to the beneficiaries in the virtual mode under the NYAY Yojana for returning the amount of chit fund investors. While talking to the Chief Minister, Ramchandra Nishad fromMohla-Manpur-Ambagarh Chowki district said that his father had invested his entire earnings of 14 lakh rupees in a chit fund company. The family had nothing left, and today 4 lakh 18 thousand rupees have been credited back to their account.

I WILL REMAIN GRATEFUL TO YOU FOR MY ENTIRE LIFE, HONORABLE CHIEF MINISTER.

Mr. Ramnaresh Patel, a resident ofManendragarh-Chirmiri-Bharatpur District, expressed to the Chief Minister that upon seeing the money deposited into