his account today, tears of happiness welled up in his eyes, and he will remain grateful to you for his entire life. The millions of investors who had lost their hard-earned money in the traps of chit fund companies had never thought that they would get their money back, but due to the visionary thinking of Chief Minister Mr. Bhupesh Baghel , not only are the affected individuals receiving their amounts back, but consistent actions are also being taken against the culprits. This story is not only about Mrs. Shashi Soni or Ramnaresh, but also about government employees and educated individuals who were victimized in this fraudulent scheme."

AFTER LOSING MONEY, THE DAUGHTER WAS DROWNING IN DEBT FOR HER EDUCATION. THE CHIEF MINISTER PROVIDED RELIEF FROM THE DEBT.

Ms. Shashi Soni, residing in Dhamtari, said, "Because of you, Chief Minister, I am getting a second life today. I was immersed in debt for my daughter's education. Falling for the trap of a chit fund company, I had lost 15 lakh. Today, because of you, I have received 855,000 rupees back. With these funds, I will repay my debt and now be able to educate my daughter without worries."

THE HOPE OF GETTING BACK THE DUPED MONEY WAS GIVEN UP, WHICH THE CHIEF MINISTER PROVED WRONG.

Mrs. Kaushalya Yadav said that receiving the refund brought her immense relief. She mentioned that she had already given up hope of recovering the money invested in the fraudulent company. As a result of the Chief Minister's sensitivity and foresight, she has now received her lost money back. She expressed her happiness with the money returned today. With this amount, she intends to invest in agricultural activities.

THE INVESTMENT WAS MADE BY SELLING ANCESTRAL LAND, SUNK MONEY WAS RECOVERED, AND A NEW LIFE WAS FOUND.

Mr. Satturam Soni , a resident of Motimpur village in Magarlod Development Block of Dhamtari district, explained that he received 15 lakh by selling his ancestral land. One day, members of the G and Gold company came and told him that they are from the ICICI Bank and if they deposit money in their bank, they will get higher interest. Upon this, Mr. Soni deposited the money in their bank. After a few days, it was revealed that the company was a fraud, and Satturam suffered a great loss, as the money deposited by his ancestors had been taken away by the fake company. Now, Satturam lost both his land and his money. Financial difficulties began in Mr. Satturam's home. For the education of his children and household expenses, he took a loan of about 200,000 rupees from banks and groups.

While announcing, Chief Minister Mr. Bhupesh Baghel said that action will be taken to return the money of those individuals in the state who have fallen victim to the deceit of pyramid scheme companies. Action will be taken against the managers of such companies, and their assets will be seized to reimburse investors. The announcement by the Chief Minister has raised hopes that the amount from our ancestors' legacy will now be returned. The district administration has taken prompt action and returned a sum of 855,000 rupees, providing significant relief, with hopes of receiving the remaining amount in the future. He mentioned that the Chief Minister is providing great assistance by returning money to people who have been defrauded by pyramid scheme companies.
