FOR THE SECOND TIME IN JHARKHAND'S HISTORY ADIVASI MAHOTSAV WAS ORGANISED

The Jharkhand Adivasi Mahotsav is a realisation of hopes of the tribal dominated state of Jharkhand. It is the visionary and sensitive leadership of Chief Minister Hemant Soren that for two consecutive years, the state of Jharkhand witnessed the organization of the grand Adivasi Mahotsav which was long awaited for the past 20 years. The unique confluence of tribal culture, tradition, costumes and cuisine of the entire country including Jharkhand was seen in the tribal festival organized on August 9 and 10 at the Birsa Munda Smriti Udyan, Ranchi, capital of Jharkhand.

Jharkhand is a land where the very walk of people is as close to them grooving and the speech as melodious as music. The same land of Jharkhand became witness to the rich Tribal philosophy of life. Great reverence and homage was offered by the people to the land of valiant tribal heroes and revolutionaries. When Tribal musical instruments spread its musical glory in the "Reej Rang Rasika Rally" and the sonorous beats of the Mandar echoed giving in to the splendid dance of 32 Tribal communities, the world stood still to witness a sight that was beautiful to behold; the Jharkhand Adivasi Mahotsav 2023.

From the stage of Jharkhand Adivasi Mahotsav 2023, the chairman of the State Coordination Committee Dishom Guru Shibu Soren gave a clarion to the tribal community that they must ensure good and quality education for their children. He insisted that only education can help the children of the tribal society to be embarked on the path of progress and development.

During the festival, the people of the state experienced the vibrant tradition and culture of the tribal community from Arunachal Pradesh, Assam, Andhra Pradesh, Odisha, Rajasthan. The culture of tribals from across the country left an indelible mark in the Jharkhand Adivasi Mahotsav. Rekham Pada, dance of Arunachal Pradesh in traditional costumes, Leva Tana and Bihu dance of Assam, Jharkhand Rangarang Mahtosav, Domkuch folk dance of local tribal, Siddhi Dhamaal dance by African tribal community of Gujarat showed the zeal of artists to preserve and elegantly display the tribal cultures. Nagpuri dance by Padma Shri Mukund Lal Nayak and songs like Hum Gaon Chhodab Nahi by Padma Shri Madhu Mansoori enlivened the festival.

Besides the vibrant cultural programmes, seminars were conducted to discuss the challenges and opportunities before tribal languages, entrepreneurship for tribal youth, marketing of tribal cuisine, relevance and importance of agro-ecology and other issues were discussed with eminent scholars from different parts of the country. During the seminar, scholars made captivating points on topics like tribal history, anthropology, tribal economy – the concept
