

substantial progress, not only in reducing Maoist incidents but also in inflicting heavy casualties on them in encounters.
A total of 75 new camps have been established in Naxal-affected areas. Unlike before, these camps are now being set up in the heart of Maoist territories. In Sukma, the district worst hit by Naxal activity, 23 camps have been established. As a result, nearly 600 villages have been freed from Maoist menace in the Bastar region.

257 CLOSED SCHOOLS RESUME TEACHING IN NAXAL-AFFECTED AREAS

After a prolonged period of closure, schools in Naxal-affected regions have been reopened, leading to improved tribal income opportunities and overall socio-economic development. Among the 2710 villages under 994 gram panchayats in the Bastar region, 589 villages have been successfully liberated from Maoist menace, allowing rural communities to access government programs. The Bastar IG highlighted the completion of 160 kilometers out of 51 approved roads under the AARAP scheme through security camps. The remaining road construction is underway with the assistance of security forces. On average, 15 base camps are established annually.
Due to Naxal threats, a total of 363 schools were closed in the Bastar region. Of these, 257 schools have been reopened, providing renewed access to education.

JUSTICE ILLUMINATES TRIBAL LIVELIHOODS

Former government acquired land from farmers in Lohandiguda, Bastar region, for industrialization, leading to continuous opposition from the tribal community. With the formation of a new government, the tribals have been returned their land. 4200 acres of land seized from 1707 tribal farmers has been restored.

- In the districts of Bastar division, 30,439 hectares of land from the Narangi forest area have been reclaimed under revenue proceedings and will be allocated to residents for agricultural purposes and establishment of new industries.
- To address cases against innocent tribal citizens in Naxal-affected regions, a committee has been formed under the chairmanship of Chief Justice A.K. Patnaik of the High Court.
- So far, 718 cases have been resolved and returned by various courts, benefiting 944 innocent tribal people.
- A separate department has been established for Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes in Chhattisgarh, along with the creation of the Scheduled Caste Advisory Council, enabling significant decisions related to tribal welfare.

DISTRIBUTION OF FORESTLAND RIGHT LETTERS

Chhattisgarh leads the nation in the distribution of community and individual forestland right letters. The state has distributed 5,06,973 individual and community forestland right letters, covering a total area of 1,01,21,621 acres.

Individual Forest Rights

4,57,145

Area (per acre)

9,19,323

Community Forest Rights

45,965

Area (per acre)

50,05,168

Community Forest Resource Rights

3863

Area (per acre)

41,97,130

CHHATTISGARH CHIEF MINISTER LAUNCHES CULTURAL AND TRIBAL DEVELOPMENT INITIATIVES

In an endeavor to ensure comprehensive societal growth, the state government, under the leadership of Chief Minister Shri Bhupesh Baghel, has embarked upon significant initiatives to preserve and advance cultural heritage, alongside fostering economic progress. These two key schemes, titled the "Mukhyamantri Chhattisgarhi Parv Samman Nidhi Yojana" and the "Mukhyamantri Adivasi Parab Samman Nidhi Yojana" exemplify the government's commitment to participating in the organization of Chhattisgarh's local festivals and traditional events.

- Under the Chhattisgarhi Parv Samman Nidhi, a total of 10,000 rupees are being provided in two installments to 6111 gram panchayats in non-scheduled areas to celebrate the third festival.
- As part of the Adivasi Parab Samman Nidhi, a sum of 10,000 rupees is being allocated in two installments to 1840 gram panchayats in tribal regions for traditional events.

FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE PROVIDED TO PRIESTS, BAIGAS, AND GUNIYAS

Under the Rajiv Gandhi Gramin Bhoomiheen Krishi Mazdoor Nyay Yojana starting from the year 2023-24, priests, Baigas, and Guniyas who perform rituals at tribal shrines in scheduled areas are being granted an economic aid of 7,000 rupees. This support is also extended to individuals from the Maanjhi, Haat Pahariya, Baja Mohriya, and other communities.

GOVERNMENT JOBS FOR YOUTH OF INDIGENOUS COMMUNITIES

Thanks to Chief Minister Mr. Bhupesh Baghel's initiative, the state has already provided government jobs to 811 youths from the specially disadvantaged indigenous communities. This includes individuals from the Abujhmaria, Kumar, Pahadi Korwa, Birhor, and Baiga communities.