1. Central Railway —Came into being on 5 November 1951 by merging:

   (a) The Great Indian Peninsula Railway
   (b) The Nizam's State Railway
   (c) The Dholpur State Railway
   (d) The Scindia State Railway

2. Eastern Railway —Came into existence on 14 April 1952 by merging :

   (a) The Sealdah, Howrah, Asansol, Danapure divisions and Dhanbad transportation division of the East India Railway
   (b) The Nagpur Railway

3. Northern Railway —Came into being on 14 April 1952 by merging:

   (a) The East Punjab Railway
   (b) The Jodhpur Railway (except Marwar)
   (c) The Bikaner Railway
   (d) The Lucknow, Moradabad and Allahabad line of the Eastern Railway
   (e) The Delhi-Rewari, Fazilka section

4. North-eastern Railway —Formed on 14 April 1952 by merging:

   (a) The Oudh Tirhut Railway
   (b) The Assam Railway (including the Cooch Behar State Railway) and the Katakhal–Laia Bazar and Chaparmukhsil Ghat Railways, which were being operated by the Assam Railway
   (c) The Fatehgarh District, i.e., Kanpur, Anwerganj, Achhnera section of the Bombay, Baroda and the Central India Railway

5. Western Railway —Formed on 5 November 1951 by merging:

   (a) The Bombay, Baroda and Central India Railway
   (b) The Saurashtra Railway
   (c) The Rajasthan State Railway