[129] At present, Indian Railways is divided into eighteen zones, including the Kolkata Metro. The newest zone, South Coast Railway, was formed on 27 February 2019 with Visakhapatnam as its headquarters.

[130] Memorandum of Regrouping, Government of India, p.48

[131] Report of the Reforms Committee, Railway Board, 1984, pp.20–21

[132] India Weather Review , 1964, Annual Summary, Part C, Storms and Depressions, p.34

[133] S.P. Loganathan, '50 years on, Dhanushkodi remembers killer cyclone', Deccan Chronicle (December 24, 2014), http://www.deccanchronicle.com/141224/nation-current-affairs/article/50-years-dhanushkodi-remembers-killer-cyclone

[134] Ibid

[135] Financial Express, Nov 21, 2017, http://www.financialexpress.com/india-news/piyush-goyals-cool-reply-to-bullet-train-critics-rajdhani-the-last-new-technology-introduced-in-railways/941730/Piyush Goyal's cool reply to bullet train critics: Rajdhani has the last new technology introduced in railways!

[136] Personal correspondence

[137] Personal correspondence