last year being raked up frequently in campaign speeches. The repeated accusation of appeasement politics also derailed the Congress's campaign, despite Gehlot's much-hyped welfare schemes. In fact, the BJP did well wherever its ideological fountainhead, the Rashtriya Swayamsevak Sangh, stepped up to support the party's candidates.

That said, the party has also done exceptionally well in reserved seats, proving that Modi's larger message of development resonated with all sections. Of the 34 seats reserved for Scheduled Castes, the BJP bagged 21 and the Congress 11, eight less than its tally of 19 in 2018. Similarly, of the 25 seats reserved for Scheduled Tribes, the BJP won 11,
