RURAL BLITZKRIEG

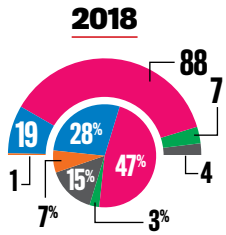

THE CONGRESS WAVE IN TELANGANA WAS LARGELY A RURAL ONE, AND THEY SWEPT CENTRAL AND SOUTHERN PARTS OF THE STATE. IN THE GREATER HYDERABAD REGION, BRS WON 16 SEATS; CONGRESS DREW A BLANK

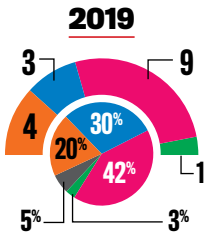

HOW THE PARTIES FARED

ASSEMBLY POLLS
Total seats 119

LOK SABHA POLLS
Total seats 17

Assembly	SC seats 18	ST seats 10
2023 ▶	14 / 4 / 0	3 / 6 / 1
2018 ▶	2 / 16 / 0	5 / 5 / 0

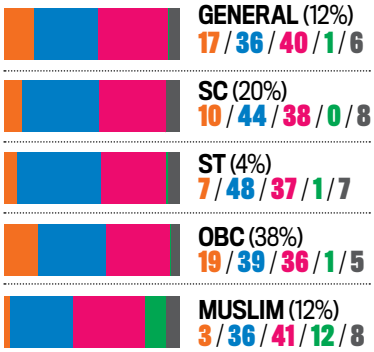

BJP Congress BRS AIMIM Others

Source: Election Commission of India

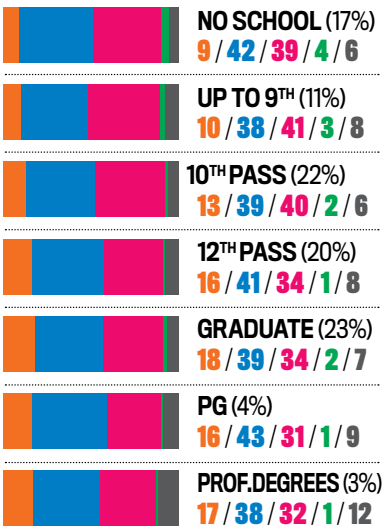

GENDER

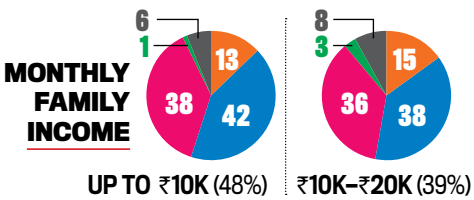

CASTE BREAK-UP

EDUCATION

MONTHLY FAMILY INCOME

Source: Axis My India and India Today bureau

deny KCR a 'hat-trick' as chief minister. The BJP, which opened its account only in the 2018 election with a single seat, saw its vote share double to 14 per cent and the number of seats go up to eight. Enough for Harathi Vageeshan, who teaches political science at the NALSAR University, Hyderabad, to say, "The Congress cannot be complacent now but ought to be conscious of a tough opposition, with the BJP in addition to the BRS. While the apathetic attitude of its leaders proved to be the nemesis of the BRS, the BJP helped it secure the urban vote, failing which the BRS would have got only around 20 seats."

The BRS itself is putting up a brave face. "It is back to the drawing boards