WE RIDE THE MERCEDES-BENZ GLE 450 TO FIND OUT WHETHER IT'S STILL A CONTENDER FOR THE BEST SUV IN THE SEGMENT CROWN

BY ANAGH BHASKAR

The Mercedes-Benz GLE is an SUV that has helped the German automaker cement its position as the top pick among luxury brands in India. The volume seller has got several new updates now.

The GLE 450, which comes with the AMG Line exterior package, differs slightly from the GLE 300d. The first noticeable change is the new signature LED lights with four small dashes and a brow at the top. This complements the new grille, which retains the shape but comes with miniature three-pointed stars all across. The lower bumper in this AMG-spec SUV is also new and comes with a layered and sporty look. Over to the sides, the SUV looks the same as before with the iconic C-pillar giving
