

> Hunar Haat, which provides national as well as market opportunities to master artisans and craftsmen and people associated with them from remote areas of the country, has become a credible platform showcasing rare exquisite indigenous handmade products.

"Hunar Haat" has also provided national as well as international markets to indigenous products of the country's artisans and craftsmen. The first "Hunar Haat" was organised from 14th to 27th November, 2016 at Pragati Maidan, New Delhi during India International Trade Fair (IITF). From then, "Hunar Haat" has now achieved several mile stones.

In the year 2021, the Ministry of Minority Affairs has organized "Hunar Haats" at Lucknow, Mysuru, JLN Stadium New Delhi, Bhopal, Panaji, Rampur, Dehradun, Vrindavan, Pragati Maidan New Delhi, Hyderabad, Surat and other places. The success of "Hunar Haats" can be gauged from the fact that during the second week of the November 2021, more than 2000 artisans and craftsmen from more than 30 States and UTs participated in 3 simultaneous "Hunar Haats" in Lucknow, Vrindavan and Trade Fair in New Delhi.

Elegant indigenous handmade products from Assam, Andhra Pradesh, Bihar, Gujarat, Ladakh, Jammu-Kashmir, Punjab, Karnataka, Madhya Pradesh, Uttar Pradesh, Rajasthan, Jharkhand, Nagaland, Meghalaya, Delhi, Maharashtra, Uttarakhand, West Bengal, Manipur, Goa, Puducherry, Chhattisgarh, Telangana, Chandigarh, Haryana etc were available for sale and display at "Hunar Haat" at Pragati Maidan organized from 14th to 27th November, 2021.

"Hunar Haat" received prestigious IITF2021 Silver Medal for strengthening commitment to "Vocal for Local" and its strong presence at Trade Fair.

A VISITORS' DELIGHT

Apart from availing the one-of-a-kind opportunity to witness the exciting arts and crafts, the visitors also enjoyed various cultural and musical programmes of renowned artists in "Hunar Haat" at Pragati Maidan every day. The visitors also enjoyed "Circus" at "Hunar Haat" where the Indian Circus artists performed spectacular diverse traditional entertainment shows.

Not only this, the renowned artists such as Anu Kapoor, Suresh Wadekar, Sudesh Bhosle, Roop Kumar Rathore, Sonali Rathore, Rekha Raj, Prem Bhatia, Bhupendra Singh Bhuppi, Dilbagh Singh, Vinod Rathore, Mirza Sisters, Mohit Khanna, Vivek Mishra, Ankita Pathak and other artists enthralled the audience with their musical, cultural programmes in the evening every day at "Hunar Haat" at Pragati Maidan, New Delhi.

The visitors at "Hunar Haat" in Vrindavan and Surat enjoyed live display of famous serial "Mahabharat" by renowned actor Puneet Issar, Gufi Paintal and others.

VISHWAKARMA VATIKA

"Vishwakarma Vatika" is one of the major attractions of "Hunar Haats" being organised all across the country. Artisans and craftsmen make a live display of the way these traditional indigenous products are made.

"Hunar Haat" has turned out to be immensely helpful in preserving and promoting the traditional art and craft of the country. It also depicts, in an artistic manner, the history and role played by great freedom fighters of that particular region where it has been organised.

BEST FROM WASTE

Besides "Vocal for Local", the "Hunar Haat" is also based on the theme of "Best from Waste". Exquisite products made from used and discarded items in households such as plastic, paper, ply, wood, glass, ceramic, jute, cotton, wool as well as banana stems, sugarcane pulp, paddy and wheat straw-stems, husk, tur, rubber, iron, brass etc are available in "Hunar Haats".
