YOGI GOVERNMENT BECAME SAVIOR OF CHILDREN, GAVE GIFT OF GOOD HEALTH

"The efforts of the UP government to deal with the Corona pandemic are phenomenal. A dozen of countries have less population than UP and with its efforts, UP has become a model for many countries.

— Narendra Modi,
Prime Minister of India

Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath started 'Uttar Pradesh mukhymantri Bal Seva Yojana' for the children who have lost both or one of their parents due to covid-19, since the outbreak of the pandemic in March 2020. Under the scheme, there is provision of giving rupees 4000 per month to the legal guardian, till the children reaches the age of 18.

The elaborate work plan has also been prepared for the study of the Covid affected children through child protection homes, Kasturba Gandhi girls boarding schools and Atal boarding schools.
