

MODI'S PERFORMANCE OVER THE YEARS

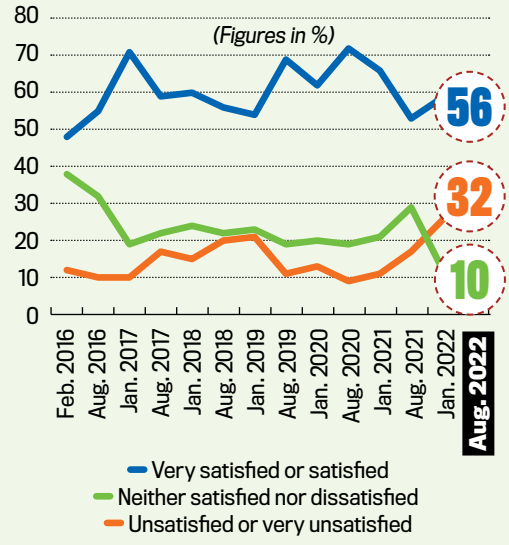

Note: Rest DK/ CS (Don't know/ can't say)

Q. How do you rate Narendra Modi's performance as prime minister?

Q. How satisfied are you with the overall performance of the NDA government?

distant second, followed by Indira Gandhi, Manmohan Singh and Jawaharlal Nehru. This could well be because Modi's predecessors, particularly Nehru and Indira, have less recall among the new generation.

Modi, however, has bucked another major trend: that of anti-incumbency. In the ninth year of his tenure, the MOTN poll shows that Modi would lead the National Democratic Alliance (NDA) to its third consecutive majority in Parliament if a general election were to be held today. Before Nitish Kumar's Janata Dal (United) walked out of the NDA on August 9, it was poised to win 307 seats, 35 more than the 272 needed for a simple majority but 45 less than the 352 the NDA actually secured in the May 2019 Lok Sabha election. NDA numbers have been
