

Engine: Electric Motor
Power: 340 bhp @430 Nm torque
Price: Rs 69.9 lakh*

BMW-i4

The second EV from BMW for India is the i4 sedan priced at Rs 69.9 lakh (ex-showroom). BMW has used a single rear-mounted electric motor rated at 340 bhp and 430 Nm of torque that can launch the i4 to a 100 kmph from standstill in just 5.7 seconds. There is an 80.7 kWh battery pack that allows for a claimed range of 590 km. The i4 can be charged with a 50 kW charger in 83 minutes from 10-80 per cent.

Engine: Electric Motor
Power: (GT Plus) 150 bhp@ 250 Nm
Price: Rs 11.2-17.92 lakh*

Engines: 1.2 L (P); 1.0 L (turbo-P); 1.5 L (D)
Power: 83bhp; 120bhp; 100bhp
Price: Rs 7.53-12.47 lakh*

HYUNDAI VENUE

The 2022 Venue gets new bumpers and grille and a continuous LED light strip at the back. The features list includes sunroof, wireless phone charger, integrated air purifier, reclining rear seat and a digital instrument cluster. Variants are a 1.2-litre NA engine, 1.0-litre turbo-petrol and 1.5-litre diesel.

VOLKSWAGEN VIRTUS

The Virtus is priced between Rs 11.22-17.92 lakh (ex-showroom) and comes with four trim options. The Comfortline, Highline and Topline are available with the 1.0-litre TSI engine with choices of manual or automatic transmissions. The top-spec GT Plus comes with the 1.5-litre TSI making 150 bhp and 250 Nm of torque mated to a 7-speed DSG automatic only. Features include automatic climate control, 60:40 split rear seats, sunroof, six airbags, ventilated front seats, wireless smartphone charger and much more.