A NEW HERO RISES

Off-road riding and racing is a spectacle to behold with stunning pictures and videos from the remotest of locations making for a high-adrenalin showcase of man and machine unlike any other form of motorsport. It's the massive dust clouds, the sheer speed, fully built up motorcycles, cars and SUVs that are made spectacular by the beautiful natural vistas and their grandeur. Such is the challenge of running multi-day cross-country rallies through harsh, unforgiving terrain that the athletes themselves need to be as robust and relentless as the terrain they're on. Skill set like that requires years of training and many failures en route before climbing up the ladder of success. These are stories of grit
