existent's kinship in the non-existent.

5. Transversely was their severing line extended: what was above it then, and what below it?

There were begetters, there were mighty forces, free action here and energy of yonder.

6. Who verily knows and who can here declare it, whence it was born and whence comes this creation?

The gods are later than this world's production.

Who knows, then, whence it first came into being.

7. He, the first origin of this creation, whether he formed it all or did not form it.

*Whose eye controls this world in highest heaven, he verily knows it, or perhaps he knows it not.

T h e A c c e p t a n c e and the N e g a t i o n of Life

From these dim beginnings of long ago flow out the rivers of I n d i a n thought and philosophy, of Indian life and culture and
