MG COMET

This new EV from MG Motor India comes with a 42 bhp/ 110 Nm electric motor, paired with a 17.3 kWh battery pack, giving it a range of 230 km. The battery can be charged from 10 to 80 per cent in five hours using a 3.3 kW charger. The top-end Plush comes with premium kit, including LED lighting all around, illuminated MG logo, LED turn indicators, 12-inch wheels, 10.25-inch instrument cluster and an infotainment display of the same size, with wireless Android Auto and Apple CarPlay.

MERCEDES-AMG SL55

Here comes the ride, accelerating from 0 to 100 kmph in just 3.9 seconds...and all the way to 295 kmph. Compared to the older car, the 7th-gen Mercedes-AMG SL55 Roadster looks much more aggressive with the large Panamericana grille and sharp triangular headlamps. The rear houses wide wraparound LED tail lamps. The 4MATIC+ AWD system, AMG ride control suspension with adaptive adjustable damping, and 390/ 360 mm disc brakes at the front/ rear give it a complete sports car experience.

BMW X5

BMW has launched the facelifted X5 SUV in India. The front now gets slimmer headlamps with matrix LED headlamps, while the grille now comes with an illuminated surround. The bumpers and the tail lamps, too, have been tweaked, and the M Sport variant offers sportier exterior kit. The cabin has been updated with a new 14.9-inch display and a 12.3-inch instrument panel, as well as a light strip. Both the petrol and diesel variants now come paired to a 48V electric motor, which means more power.
