

BATTING HIGHS
Clefts stacked up for drying at a bat manufacturing unit in Awantipora

Farwzul Kabeer looks a tad overwhelmed, guiding workers at his cricket bat manufacturing unit at Halmulla in south Kashmir's Anantnag, as they fine-tune the ones ready for despatch. "We have to ready 300 cricket bats for 20 international players in this World Cup. Half the order is complete but we are working late into the evenings to get the rest ready," says Kabeer, whose unit is the only one in the Valley to meet ICC (International Cricket Council) specifications for cricket bats.
