

THE NATION

RAJASTHAN

GEHLOT'S LESSONS IN PROFLIGACY

Thousands of crores have been spent on cosmetic touches in Rajasthan's Kota. A chic new riverfront is the latest addition to that frenzied beautification, though it has landed in a controversy over allegedly flouting environmental norms. Amid criticism, Chief Minister Ashok Gehlot decided to distance himself from the inauguration. But can he justify the wanton spending on other projects?

By Rohit Parihar