

3 → SATYA NADELLA, 55

EXECUTIVE CHAIRMAN & CEO, MICROSOFT

Illustration by NILANJAN DAS (AI)

LEADING THE AI BRIGADE

BECAUSE in January 2022, Nadella was awarded the Padma Bhushan, India's third-highest civilian honour, in the Trade and Industry category

BECAUSE Nadella and Microsoft are among the leaders in the development of AI (Artificial Intelligence)-based products, with Microsoft having invested about $13 billion in OpenAI, the lab that developed ChatGPT

STACK DUMP

In late 2021, Nadella was in the news for selling roughly half his stake in Microsoft—some 840,000 shares, worth about $280 million. According to a report that year, the Microsoft CEO's annual compensation package, including stock awards and cash incentives, was in the region of $50 million

BECAUSE since becoming the third CEO of Microsoft (after Bill Gates and Steve Ballmer), Nadella has led the firm from strength to strength, being hailed as Financial Times's Person of the Year and Fortune's Businessperson of the Year in 2019