PATRIARCH AMONG BILLIONAIRES

BECAUSE he oversees a diverse global business empire that straddles sectors such as automotive, IT, media and entertainment, infrastructure, oil & speciality chemicals, power and real estate, and employs 200,000 people

BECAUSE Gopichand and his family (elder brother and group patriarch Srichand Hinduja passed away on May 17) are the richest people in the UK, and some of the most influential Asians, with a wealth of £35 billion, as per the Sunday Times rich list.Their assets include property worth millions in central London

FAMILY FIRST In November, the Hinduja family put up a united front and called truce over a bitter power struggle within the family, though news reports suggest that the embers might still be burning

BECAUSE the brothers are also big donors through the Hinduja Foundation, contributing to areas such as social welfare, rural development, education, health and water

8 GOPICHAND HINDUJA, 83

CO-CHAIRMAN, HINDUJA GROUP

Illustration by ROUNAK PATRA

Illustration by MANJUL

9 BELA BAJARIA, 52

CHIEF CONTENT OFFICER, NETFLIX

Lady with the Remote Control

BECAUSE her role makes her one of the most powerful executives in entertainment, as she decides how the streamer's annual content budget of $17 billion is to be spent and greenlights stories that 232.5 million subscribers the world over will watch

BECAUSE under her leadership, the diversity in Netflix's programming has grown significantly, with popular hits like Bridgerton, Never Have I Ever, The Squid Game and Lupin

ADDITIONAL SUPERPOWER

Bajaria is a beauty circuit veteran, having won Miss India California, followed by Miss India USA and Miss India Universe in 1991

BECAUSE in an increasingly tough environment for streaming platforms, she has guaranteed that Netflix remains ahead of its competitors by being the most prolific creator of original programming. Recent hits include Wednesday and Dahmer