

Illustration by NILANJAN DAS

3 RATAN TATA, 85

CHAIRMAN, TATA TRUSTS

Eminence Grise

BECAUSE as head of Tata Trusts, the philanthropic arm that holds 66 per cent share in Tata Sons, he remains the most venerated figure in the pantheon of Indian industrialists. He has a key role in the appointment of the chairman of Tata Sons, the holding company of the Tata Group

BECAUSE Tata Trusts has developed and augmented 10 cancer care facilities across the country—in Assam, Jharkhand, Andhra Pradesh and Karnataka. The trusts' distributed cancer control model makes world-class treatment accessible and affordable for people

LIT LIST The Parag Initiative, run by Tata Trusts, helms an effort to revivify the culture of reading, curating quality literature for children in English and Hindi and compiling them into guides for teachers, librarians and parents. Its 2023 Honours List, the third edition, received submissions of original fiction, non-fiction and poetry from 33 publishing houses

NE'ER TOO OLD Age is no bar for Tata to learn the piano or post retro Insta pix

PET PUJA A self-proclaimed dog lover, he missed receiving a lifetime achievement award from (then) Prince Charles in 2018 at Buckingham Palace because one of his two pet dogs was ill

BECAUSE Tata Trusts supported the publication of the India Justice Report 2022—its third edition—this April. India's only ranking of states, initiated in 2019, on justice delivery, the IJR has tracked and brought to the national discourse how states are performing in their most essential covenant with citizens, an area that needs some name with gravitas