Vardhmān

THE TRAILBLAZING FORCE BEHIND VARDHMAN GROUP'S SUSTAINABLE GROWTH

SUCHITA OSWAL JAIN

Ms Suchita Oswal Jain, the Vice Chairperson and Joint Managing Director of Vardhman Group, is an accomplished business leader, philanthropist and champion of women's empowerment. In the early 1990s, she joined the group as its Chief Executive Officer (CEO), and since then has made remarkable contributions to the growth and success of the company.

With her innovative ideas and long-term vision in the textile manufacturing industry, Ms Jain has demonstrated exemplary dedication, hard work and leadership which has propelled Vardhman Group to become India's largest vertically integrated textile manufacturer. Today, the company boasts an impressive spindle count of 1.19 million and an annual export value of Rs 4747 crores, thanks to Ms Jain's unwavering commitment to excellence and her ability to lead by example. Her contributions have not only transformed Vardhman Group but also inspired and empowered women in the industry to break through glass ceilings and achieve new heights of success.

JOURNEY TO SUCCESS

Ms Suchita Oswal Jain, the Vice Chairperson of Vardhman Group, is a master's degree holder in Commerce from Panjab University, who has honed her leadership skills with several training programs from world-renowned institutions. She underwent an Accelerated Development Program from the London Business School, followed by a Leadership Development Program from INSEAD, Paris and a Strategy Program from the London Business School.

Through these programs, she has developed a strong business acumen and strategic thinking skills, which have proven to be invaluable assets to her career.

Joining the Vardhman Group in the early 1990s as a Chief Executive Officer, Ms Suchita worked her way up the ranks, serving in various departments before eventually becoming the Executive Director. Her leadership philosophy is centered around inclusivity, transparency and empowerment. She believes that true leadership includes involving employees and customers to create mutual opportunities. According to her, building an environment that fosters people's development and growth through trust, transparency and empowerment is the essence of leadership.