VISIONARY LEADER WITH STRONG WORK ETHICS

Ms Suchita Oswal Jain is a dynamic leader who firmly believes in leading from the front. Her forward-thinking approach coupled with her goal-oriented outlook, has made her a force to be reckoned with in the business world. She has a keen eye for anticipating trends and changes and adapts accordingly, ensuring the longevity of her organization's success.

As an advocate of women's empowerment, she has made significant contributions to Vardhman Group's growth, with 35% of the workforce comprising women. Under her leadership, the organization was the first to acquire permission from the Government of Punjab for allowing women to work in night shifts, setting a precedent for the industry to follow.

In her own words, "Women Empowerment is close to my heart. Empowering women is not just the right thing to do; it's the smart thing to do."

To generate awareness among teenage girls about taboo issues such as menstruation, Vardhman Group launched Project Nandini in association with its implementing partner, Action India. The project has already benefitted 15,505 women in Punjab and Himachal Pradesh, covering 18 Government Schools and 11 slum areas. The project has been extended to Budhni, Madhya Pradesh also.

HOW MS SUCHITA'S VISIONARY LEADERSHIP TRANSFORMED VARDHMAN GROUP

Ms Suchita has contributed immensely to the company's success and has received several awards including the " Women in Leadership" award by " Economic Times" . Today, with her contributions, Vardhman Group stands tall as the largest vertically integrated textile manufacturer in India. With a spindle count of 1.19 million, they are the leading manufacturer of cotton yarns in India. Additionally, they have one of the largest fabric processing capacities of 180 million meters, continuously exploring and innovating new areas of expansion.

The company has direct employment of over 30,000 people and is a market leader in the dynamic textile industry. Quality products and collaborations with international brands such as GAP and PVH are integral to their operations.

Vardhman Group has a culture of transforming young talent into leaders and promotes an open communication system that follows a top-down approach. "Respect for all" is their success mantra!

They promote sustainable cultivation of cotton and have collaborated with global cotton programs including Organic Cotton, Fair Trade cotton and Better Cotton Initiative with a focus on responsible sourcing, traceability and transparency.

Vardhman Group has developed an exciting green product portfolio based on green inputs, processes and collaborations. They practice the elimination of hazardous chemicals and adopt green chemistry along with reducing freshwater consumption by recycling their water through in-house STP's & ETP's.

One of Vardhman's units has been selected as a model factory to develop energy-saving guidelines for the industry as per an MoU signed by the Government of India and the Government of Japan.

Vardhman Textiles Ltd. has been ranked no. 176 in the Fortune 500 India's Largest Indian Companies rating for 2022. They have also been recognized as the "Most Iconic Organization" in " Punjab Best Brands Leadership" Awards in 2023.

VARDHMAN GROUP'S SUSTAINABLE CSR INITIATIVES

Vardhman Group is committed to giving back to the society and protecting the environment through its Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) initiatives. One of the core values of the group is the promotion of women's economic empowerment. They have also launched project Nandini, a CSR program for promoting menstrual hygiene among females, primarily young girls, who rarely receive any education about menstrual hygiene.

- Apart from this, the group has constructed and handed over several state-of-the-art facilities to medical and educational institutions such as the Bone Marrow Transplant Department, Physical Medicine Rehabilitation Block and Multi- Speciality Ward to Christian Medical College & Hospital Ludhiana, and Mother Auditorium at Sri Aurobindo College of Commerce & Management, Ludhiana
- Further, "Vardhman School Development Program" was launched in 2016 to upgrade the infrastructure of various schools. They have covered 165 Government Schools & 78 Aanganwari so far with total 65000 Beneficiaries.
