"If the common interest of non-BJP political parties is to keep the BJP away from power, petty rivalries must be forgotten"

JOHN BRITTAS
CPI(M) leader and MP

FUNDAMENTALS OF FEDERALISM: HOW TO FIND EQUILIBRIUM IN CENTRE-STATE RELATIONS

BANDEEP SINGH

"We're underestimating the problem of cooperative federalism being created due to BJP's vision of 'One India'. It doesn't see states as equal partners of the Centre"

P. CHIDAMBARAM
Congress MP and former Union minister of finance and home

INSIGHT: IS COMMUNAL POLARISATION A GROWING THREAT AND HOW DOES IT IMPACT MUSLIM IDENTITY?

"There is an inconsistency about the so-called secular parties. Now, the real fight between them and the BJP is to show who is the bigger Hindu"

ASADUDDIN OWAISI
MP and President, AIMIM

such as backwaters, ayurveda and caravan tourism, as well as on infrastructure. Amitabh Kant, India's G20 Sherpa and the former CEO of NITI Aayog, highlighted the significance of the South in India's national project, pointing out how the five southern states together make up about 30 per cent of the GDP. "A lot of India's ambition to be a $5 trillion economy and then a $10 trillion economy will have to be driven by the southern states," he said.

KEY ROADBLOCKS

However, challenges remain. K.N. Balagopal, the state finance minister, said it needs support from the Centre, with recent restrictions on borrowing being a key concern. "Such excesses will affect all states," CM Vijayan concurred. Meanwhile, S.N. Raghuchandran Nair, president, Trivandrum Chamber of Commerce and Industry, pointed to an anomaly: Kerala has 2.5 million migrant or 'guest' workers who send remittances to the tune of Rs 35,000