

Wildlife Experiences

Rajasthan offers amazing wildlife experiences in its national parks and wildlife sanctuaries, showcasing a rugged and beautiful habitat not seen elsewhere in the country.

Ranthambhore National Park

The land of the tiger, Ranthambhore is the most famous national park in Rajasthan. Sawai Madhopur is the 'Gateway to Ranthambore'. Situated 14 kilometres from Sawai Madhopur, Ranthambhore National Park gets its name from the Ranthambhore Fort, now a UNESCO World Heritage Site. The National Park is spread over an area of 392 sq km of thick forest punctuated with pleasant waterfalls. It's most famous resident is the tiger, but it is also home to chinkara, sambhar, cheetal and over 300 species of birds.

Sariska Tiger Reserve

Sariska Tiger Reserve, the first tiger reserve in the world to have successfully relocated tigers, is just 200 kilometres from Delhi and 107 kilometres from Jaipur, making it extremely accessible. It was declared a sanctuary in 1955 and became a National Park in 1979. The reserve is great for tiger safaris.

Desert National Park

The Desert National Park displays the best of the Thar desert's ecosystem and its varied wildlife. The park is formed of undulating sand dunes, jagged rocks, dense salt lake bottoms and inter-medial areas. Various species of animals such as black buck, chinkara and desert fox inhabit the park. The highly endangered Great Indian Bustard, one of the world's heaviest flying birds, can be seen here. In winter, the park hosts an incredible variety of migratory raptors such Himalayan and Eurasian Griffon Vultures, Eastern Imperial Eagle, and the Saker Falcon.

Kumbhalgarh Wildlife Sanctuary

The Kumbhalgarh Wildlife Sanctuary is one of the major attractions for visitors to Udaipur and Kumbhalgarh. Located 84 kilometres from Udaipur, the park is on the Udaipur-Pali-Jodhpur road, and encircles the massive fort of Kumbhalgarh. Whether you are a wildlife lover or just someone who wants to commune with nature, the Kumbhalgarh Wildlife Sanctuary is perfect. It offers you a chance to catch a glimpse of jungle cats, hyenas, jackals, leopards, sloth bears, nilgai, sambhar, chausingha, chinkara, hares, etc.
