

BANDEEP SINGH

INTERVIEW

22 'WE'RE RELIABLE PARTNERS WHO PROMOTE PEACE'

Group Editorial Director Raj Chengappa talks to French foreign minister Catherine Colonna about bilateral ties, security cooperation, combating terrorism, and more

ANI

ECONOMY

40 THE PAIN POINTS

The economy's recovery shows the rich getting richer, the poor poorer. Is the turnaround K-shaped?

DEFENCE

46 A CASE FOR LIGHTER TANKS

The high-altitude standoff with China impressed on the army the need for lighter tanks. A new project to design and build armoured vehicles is awaiting a go-ahead

EDUCATION

103 KOTA FACTORY, SEASON 2

While online edtech firms are moving to brick-and-mortar classes, traditional players are going online

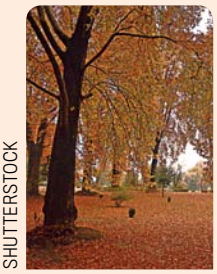

PURUSHOTTAM DIWAKAR

LAW & ORDER

106 HIGH ON CRIME, LOW ON CONVICTIONS

The latest national crime survey reveals a worrying increase in a range of criminal offences, and a decline in punishment

SHUTTERSTOCK

INDIA TODAY TravelPlus QUARTERLY

A GUIDE FOR YOUR NEXT HOLIDAY 49

SHORT CUTS

51 WATCHING AUTUMN LEAVES FALL

Head to Srinagar to catch a rare sight of Chinar trees in autumn, or to Shillong to enjoy pink cherry blossoms

ANI

TEMPLE TOURISM

54 THE PILGRIM'S PROGRESS

In India, travel often becomes a pilgrimage. Here are 10 temples you must visit in the last quarter of 2022

ARUNACHAL

62 ROLLING THROUGH THE HILLS

The 2,400-km Trans-Arunachal drive is a sheer delight

JAISALMER

69 DESERT DELIGHTS

Ditch the camel for a jeep if you really want to explore Jaisalmer

WILDLIFE PARKS

72 WHERE THERE'S A WILD

The theatre of the natural world plays out like nowhere else at these 10 places

RANTHAMBORE

85 MORE THAN JUST TIGERS

Beyond tiger sightings, there's a host of things to do at the national park

PARTING SHOT

86 WITH TRAVEL AS HER GUIDE

Actress Raveena Tandon knows how to make the most of any itinerary