

HIMACHAL TOURISM

l Pradesh day Destination

stations that add a magical and memorable vibe to your wedding.

Unexplored wonders

Himachal, blessed with little wonders, is waiting to be discovered by nature lovers like you. These hidden charms exude scenic beauty and make for the perfect destination for your travel bucket list. Take the road less travelled and discover the many unexplored destinations in Himachal. You can begin by exploring the quiet hill station, Chindi, Barot valley in Mandi district or the temples in the splendid Karsog Valley.

Divine Experience

Spirituality reverberates in every corner of Himachal. Beautiful temples, secluded monasteries, and iconic churches offer divine blessings and an aura of spiritual calm. The Shaktipeeths in Himachal, namely Sri Naina Devi Temple (Bilaspur), Sri Chintpurni Temple (Una), Sri Jawalamukhi Temple (Kangra), Sri Brajeshwari Devi Temple (Kangra), and Sri Chamunda Devi Temple (Kangra), visits by large number of pilgrims especially during the Navratras.

Festive Fervour

Most of the fairs and festivals of Himachal are a celebration of life or have religious or agrarian roots. Almost every village has a small fair or festival which encourages community building. When in Himachal, you cannot miss the grand festivals such as Kullu Dussehra, celebrated in Kullu in the month of October every year. It is an International level festival. During the festival, one can experience the rich cultural heritage of Himachal Pradesh. Other upcoming fairs and festivals include the International Lavi Fair, Rampur (Shimla) and Renuka Ji Fair (Sirmaur), held in November.

Adventures Galore

The geographical diversity of Himachal also opens immense possibilities for a wide range of outdoor activities, sports and adventure. From the thrill of paragliding, mountaineering, camping and mountain biking to still water sports and river-rafting, there is an adventure for one and all out there. Himachal is also a trekker's delight and a must-visit for adventure lovers during winter to experience the best of skiing, heli-skiing and ice skating. Some of the most adventurous destinations include Bir Billing, Solang Valley, Narkanda, Kufri, Kullu-Manali, Lahaul & Spiti and Dharamshala.
