HARYANA
THE EPITOME OF RELIGIOUS, HISTORICAL HERITAGE AND VIBRANT TOURISM

"Today's India is reviving its lost heritage. This new India is also proud of its culture and equally confident in its capabilities. This new India has heritage as well as development."

- Narendra Modi

A rich past and a rich future

Rich in religious and historical sites, the land of Haryana encompasses culture, architecturally rich monuments and beautiful natural sites. With the Shivaliks in the north, the Aravalli hills in the south, picturesque lakes and enchanting places, many adventurous, religious and historical destinations including the fascinating remains of the Indus Valley Civilization in Rakhigarhi, lush green fields, lush crops, Kurukshetra, Jyotisar, Thanesar, Pehowa, Hisar, Agroha, Karnal, Yamunanagar, Mahendragarh, Narnaul, Pinjore and Panchkula, and Morni Hills attract archaeologists and tourists. In the last seven years, with the continuous efforts of the government, the road network has been strengthened to help tourists reach tourist places by connecting the villages of the state with the cities and connecting the cities with the national highways. Today the tourist places of the state have become centres of attraction for the visitors. Dharmakshetra - Kurukshetra has echoes of international identity now.
