Respect for Culture - Identity of Haryana

Dharmakshetra - Kurukshetra

Kurukshetra is a famous tourist place of the state. In order to develop Kurukshetra as a major tourist destination, Ministry of Tourism, Government of India, has released an amount of Rs 97.34 crore for various construction works. Brahma Sarovar located in Kurukshetra is a spiritual and scenic spot. One can enjoy the most beautiful sunsets here. At Jyotisar, the birthplace of The Gita in Kurukshetra, where nine forms of Lord Krishna are depicted in 'Virat Swaroop' as a 40-feet high statue built of four metals including 85 percent copper and weighing 35 tonnes.

Panchkula

For the development of Mata Mansa Devi Temple and Nada Sahib Gurdwara in Panchkula, an amount of Rs 49.51 crore has been approved by the Union Ministry of Tourism for various development works. Countless devotees across the nation visit here to pay their respects.

Adi Badri Dham

Adi Badri Dham is situated in the lap of the mountains in Kathgarh village of Yamunanagar. The mesmerising view here attracts everyone towards it.

Surrounded by greenery and holy places, this place is also the origin of Saraswati River.